Westons Property welcomes you to this superior residence set on an expansive 904 square metre block admiring a Northerly aspect. First time offered to the marketplace, this unique family home spreads over two generous levels.

The ground level offers an array of spacious settings with a large open kitchen, dining and living room. This light filled, versatile floorplan provides the option of separate living quarters whilst entertaining family and friends otherwise enjoy a friendly game of snooker and glass of wine from the inbuilt bar area.

Take advantage of the extra-large room on this level to either provide a comfortable place for a loved one to stay or create your work from home station.

Moving to the first level you will be greeted with an open rumpus room which lends itself to four generous bedrooms, the master complete with his/hers walk in robe and ensuite whilst offering access to a front balcony.

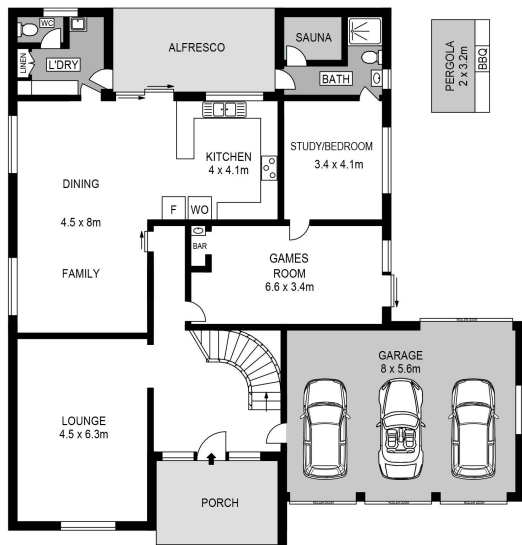

The outdoors of this grand home speaks for itself, whether it be the large front porch, the wide frontage with a three-car garage and drive through option or the expansive backyard that offers the possibility of a granny flat option (STCA). This beautiful family home is
